FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Al Melfi Awarded Lifetime Achievement Award by Delaware County Chamber of Commerce.

(June 13, 2011, Downingtown, PA) - DNB First Executive Vice President and Chief Lending Officer, Al Melfi, has been chosen by the Delaware County Chamber of Commerce to receive their Lifetime Achievement Award. The award recognizes individuals who have achieved success in business, while remaining committed to their family and community.

Mr. Melfi has had a long career in business banking, serving as Executive Vice President and Chief Lending Officer for DNB First since 2006. He has also held leadership positions for Commerce Bank, Continental/MidLantic and First Pennsylvania Bank. Mr. Melfi is a strong supporter of the business community and has helped provide the financing businesses need to grow and fuel our local economies throughout his career.

He serves on the board of various non-profits, business and civic organizations and has been an active member in the Delaware & Chester County Chambers of Commerce. Mr. Melfi's involvement with over 27 organizations throughout his career exemplifies his ongoing commitment to community.

"We are very pleased that Al has received this distinction. With his lending expertise, extensive contacts, and desire to give back, Al is a strong advocate for businesses in Delaware and Chester Counties," said William Latoff, DNB First Chairman and CEO.

DNB First is proud to have one of its own receive this award and congratulates Al on this accomplishment. Mr. Melfi will receive his Lifetime Achievement Award at the General Membership Luncheon held at Drexelbrook on Tuesday, June 28th from 11:30AM - 1 PM.
