4th ANNUAL DNB FIRST LOYALTY TO SERVICE AWARD WINNERS HONORED AT CELEBRATION BREAKFAST

DOWNTOWN, Pennsylvania – April 16, 2009 –The 4th Annual DNB First Loyalty To Service Awards breakfast was held at the Desmond Great Valley Hotel and Conference Center on April 16th. There, the 2009 Loyalty To Service Awards were presented and all of the 2009 nominees were recognized. The awards honor outstanding professionals in the field of social work who exemplify the highest levels of professionalism, integrity and commitment.

Four outstanding individuals in the field of social services were honored. The Loyalty To Service Award was presented to Heidi Carlson, who serves as Aging Care Management Supervisor for the Department of Aging Services in the County of Chester. Also honored at the event were Gina L. Buckman, CASSP Coordinator at the Chester County Department of Mental Health/Mental Retardation and Regina D. Horton-Lewis, Assistant Director for Friends Association for the Care and Protection of Children located in West Chester. The 4th Annual Robert J. Thompson Lifetime Achievement Award was presented to Dr. Patricia Joseph, Professor and Chair of Sociology and Anthropology at Lincoln University for her lifelong commitment to and achievements in the field of social services.

William S. Latoff, Chairman and CEO of DNB First said at the meeting, “I am delighted to present these awards to such outstanding individuals who have committed themselves to the field and to others who are often in a time of their greatest need. These individuals have touched and enhanced the lives of so many members of our community. They and their organizations are among the unrecognized heroes of our society. DNB First is proud to sponsor these awards and place a spotlight on the incredible work these individuals and their peers do.”
